

Maras named Best Enterprise in Europe

Updated 17 January 2014

Prominent South Australian commercial property group Maras has won the Best Enterprise award from the Europe Business Assembly in Oxford, United Kingdom, for its achievements in the commercial property industry.

The EBA International prize was conferred in the field of commercial and retail property development and investment and acknowledges Maras Group's outstanding innovations, results and successes within the industry over many years. Awards were also presented to influential political and public figures, business champions and representatives of science and culture, for professional achievements and personal contributions in intellectual development of the modern society worldwide.

About 130 business leaders from 35 countries participated in the official reception and the Socrates Award Ceremony at The Randolph Hotel in Oxford, United Kingdom, from the 18th to the 20th of December 2013. The 3-day convention included presentations from global award winning companies and individuals, a walking tour of Oxford and University College and a tour to Windsor Castle, the largest inhabited castle in the world.

The prestigious award trophy is hand crafted by renowned London jeweler, Alfred Winiacki. It is 24K gold plated and encrusted with Swarovski crystals. It is in the shape of a hand symbolising 'hard work'.

The Socrates Committee of the EBA also awarded Maras Group Managing Director and CEO, Steve Maras, with the Manager of the Year Medal for his individual contribution to the company and the broader business community.

"This is a great honor for our company but also another opportunity for us to spruik our great State of South Australia and bring further attention to Adelaide.

"I am infinitely proud of what we do as an organisation and the people that make up Maras Group" Steve said. "This award is very much a reward for all the hard work, commitment and effort of all our team."

The EBA Best Enterprise award in Oxford caps off a momentous month for Maras Group on the international scene having also taken out the European Society for Quality Research Best Practices Award in Vienna, Austria, on the 8th of December 2013.
