

One Small Room to pop up on Ebenezer Place

Updated 8 January 2013

One Small Room, the much-loved store from the 'Queen St' strip in Croydon, will join Ebenezer Place this month for Rundle Street East's newest pop up shop

Maras Group MD, Steve Maras says One Small Room is bringing to the city its stylishly edited mix of upcycled furnitures, homewares, accessories and more.

He says the idea behind One Small Room is to set up a room as an ever-evolving installation with special pieces, sourced from different places, chosen for their quality, uniqueness, design and soul, all thrown together and styled as it would be in a home.

"We're thrilled to be popping up in Ebenezer Place and bringing a taste of 'Queen St' to the city!" says owner, Rebekah Cichero. "One Small Room is celebrating 10 years this year and what better way to celebrate than joining the fun and creative crew on Ebenezer."

Steve says Maras Group is leading the way with fostering and promoting vibrant pop up stores when a vacancy arises to create freshness and excitement and an ever-changing retail environment.

"Naomi Murrell pop up was a huge success and was extremely well received," he says, "and with this there will be more exciting announcements in store for Ebenezer place in the coming months – watch this space!"

The One Small Room 'Up We Pop' Shop will be open in Ebenezer place this Friday 10am till late – which is also the first Summer Fridays in the East End of 2013.
