

by young Australian designers

Major labels: Moodswinger's own designs and other Australian labels such as Saint Augustine Academy, Thousand Reasons, Pop Issue and Silence is Nothing

Hit prediction: Winter is going to be about finding that fitted individual jacket that nobody else has and that rare leather piece that you make your own and wear to everything.

4. Shop Five, shop 5, 4-10 Ebenezer Place

Owned by: Jessian Polk

Core business: women's fashion and lifestyle products from around the globe

Major labels: Uma and Leopold and NIko, Oscar The Third (Jessian's label)

Other: MOR Cosmetics and Skincare and one-off items of jewellery and homewares from around the globe.

Hot product: Oscar The Third winter collection and Oscar Organics, all organic cotton, due in store in September.

5. Lamour, shop 4, 4-10 Ebenezer Place

Owned by: Juan and Peral

Core business: women's wear, accessories and shoes imported from Korea, Japan, Hong Kong

Major labels: No specific labels but pieces by Asian designers. The style is quite different from Australian or Western fashions.

Hot products: affordable bags, jewellery and accessories including belts, scarfs, leggings and shoes.

6. First In Flight, shop 7, 7 Ebenezer Place

Owned by: Ben and Amy Stephan

Core business: Retro-style sneakers, imported denim and T-shirts.

Major labels: Nike, Reebok, Asics, New Balance, Puma, DC, Carhartt and Stussy

Other: Nike due to Adelaide's hip hop scene which has a strong affiliation with the brand. Smaller street labels imported from the US such as Alphanumeric, Acrylick, Akomplice, Cake and Foosh.

Hot product: Nike Max 90's are so hot right now. Hightops have also been really strong. The trend is away from the bright-coloured shoes back to the classic clean and simple colours.
