Maras and Renew Adelaide win AbaF Award

Updated 31 August 2012

Maras Group MD, Steve Maras and Renew Adelaide have won the Woodside Better Business Award at the Australia Business Arts Foundation South Australia and Northern Territory awards at Government House this week.

The event was hosted by His Excellency Rear Admiral Kevin Scarce, Governor of South Australia and Mrs Liz Scarce.

Renew Adelaide, represented by Chairman, Stephen Mitchell, was recognized for the Impact it has had in fostering the development of young creative entrepreneurs.

During the past year, Renew Adelaide has successfully supported or assisted with the development of exciting ventures including Tuxedo Cat, Pigeon Island Café, The Reading Room, Workshop, The Littlest Vintage, That Dapper Market, Jade Monkey, The Loft Upstairs and many others.

Steve Maras has made a significant contribution to Renew Adelaide since joining its Board in mid-2011 and is now Deputy Chair. The Board, initially five young people with limited experience, now numbers eight highly skilled professionals steering an incorporated organisation.

Renew Adelaide outgoing CEO and current Board Member, Dr Ianto Ware, says "the passion Steve Maras has for urban renewal and the support he has given Renew Adelaide have made him an invaluable member of the Board".

Maras and Renew Adelaide will now go on to represent South Australia at the National AbaF Awards gala dinner to be held in Melbourne on 23 October.
